ORDER SETTING NEW EFFECTIVE DATE OF DECISION

Respondent filed suit to challenge the Decision in this case, dated January 30, 1984, with an effective date of February 29, 1984.

The Superior Court recently issued judgment denying the mandamus petition and upholding the Board's Decision. The Court also dissolved its order staying the execution of the Board's Decision.

Although time still remains open for the filing of an appeal, respondent has indicated he will not appeal, preferring that the Board set a new effective date of Decision to start the penalty order in execution.

Therefore, it is hereby ordered that the new effective date of the Decision in this case be November 19, 1984.

Dated: November 14, 1984
